Former General Color Facility Sold

Kankakee, IL – The former facility commonly known as General Color and/or Ketone was recently sold to Center of Deliverance Ministries. The 7,075 square foot building has vaulted wood beam ceiling and 20' ceiling height. Center of Deliverance Ministries was started in 2008 and has been rapidly growing and needed additional space to continue their outreach. Center of Deliverance will lease the facility on a short term basis with a closing on the Purchase to occur in summer of 2010. Christopher W. Curtis, SIOR of Nugent Curtis Real Estate represented the transaction.
